Adult's view: Do you think your child benefited from receiving the parcels? Please say how.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Yes. My young person loved to receive the parcels and enjoyed books games that were in them thank you.</li> <li>- I think there was too much in each parcel for this particular child to manage. She did enjoy some of the books and stickers</li> <li>- It was great to get a parcel each month. The books were varied and not what he would usually read</li> <li>- Yes he looked forward to them, like playing the games more than reading the books</li> <li>- Yes Rhys loved the books and hasn't stopped reading, he has read Beast Quest books every other day he has finished.</li> <li>- These were lovely parcels for my children. The variety was good and all were age appropriate.</li> <li>- I think it help a lot with reading and the joy he got when the parcels arrived.</li> <li>- I think my child benefited apart from the obvious reading etc. He loved receiving a parcel in his name and opening it himself.</li> <li>- Yes, encouraged her to read a wider range of books</li> <li>- Encouraged reading and interest in going to the library</li> <li>- A did benefit from the book and game because it made her get them out and show everyone and loved to show them to all the family</li> <li>- Enjoyed getting a parcel and liked story CDs best. Games did not seem to go down very well</li> <li>- My child liked the idea of getting something for themselves but did not entirely understand what it was for, paper and books are to scribble on and rip</li> <li>- The child was pleased to receive a parcel but after looking at what's inside soon lost interest and put the things away without really looking at them again.</li> </ul>

Any other comments? (please continue over the page if you need to) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- I hope this scheme will run again in the future</li> <li>- Since receiving the parcels my young person has taken position librarian at school and loves books</li> <li>- Parcels are a great scheme, He would have enjoyed it more if he was able to read a book on his own, but this will come over time, he has made good progress since being in care and going to school every day.</li> <li>- Thank you very much for the parcels</li> <li>- Rhys does not take responsibility for borrowing books, so feel we have tons at home thus not use library as of yet but will.</li> <li>- Thank you for sending them</li> <li>- He enjoyed receiving the parcels but we have a house full of books and he has access to shelves of books of his own here. It seems to me it's not children in foster care who need the parcels!</li> <li>- While you are with them it is fine, but on their own they lose interest, and having 3 other children in household it caused a lot of upset and jealousy</li> <li>- I think it does benefit children if they like reading and also on the child's ability to read.</li> </ul>
