WORK*NOTTINGHAMSHIRE OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT 4UTH AWARD 2017*Purpose of the Report

1. This report describes the recent activity of the Youth Service in facilitating the delivery of Nottinghamshire County Council's seventh annual Outstanding Achievement 4Uth Award and seeks approval to receive an update report on activity following the Nottinghamshire Outstanding Achievement 4Uth Awards and celebration event for 2018.

Information and Advice

2. This is the seventh year that the County Council has organised the award with support from the Nottingham Post newspaper.
3. From April 2017, through the local media, the Council invited members of the public, professionals, family members and friends to nominate individual young people who have achieved beyond their own boundaries in their lives. This year 85 nominations were received from around the County from a range of individuals and organisations including family members, youth workers, teachers, members of the community, voluntary sector organisations etc.
4. As in previous years there was a wide variety of nominations in terms of the skills, talents and interests of young people. The Council received nominations for young people because of their sporting ability, their contributions to the local community, their achievements at school, their charitable work, and their supportive and caring roles within their families.
5. There has been significant media interest in all of the young people who were nominated, which has led to the raising of a positive profile of all young people in the County, through a consistent stream of high quality articles published in local papers about the positive impact these young people have made with their peers or their local communities.
6. By the time the overall winner of the Outstanding Achievement 4Uth Award was announced, almost 100 young people and adults from all over Nottinghamshire had supported the awards and given their time to making it a success. Local panels of young people, selected from District Youth Forums, and interested adults met in the seven districts to select local winners. These seven district winners were presented with their awards at the awards evening. The overall winner of the 2017 award was selected by a panel of judges which included elected Members and representatives from the voluntary sector.

7. The formal awards evening took place at County Hall on Friday 27th October 2017; this event was opened by Councillor John Handley, Chairman of Nottinghamshire County Council, and compered by a young person from the County Youth Arts team. The audience was musically entertained by a local young singer and song writer.
8. Kaitlin Rose, the Broxtowe District winner, was confirmed as the overall winner of the County award and received an additional award from Councillor Kay Cutts, Leader of the Council.
