

Appendix B

Exceptions for certain vehicles in specific circumstances

The table below sets out those vehicles which we propose should not be subject to the prohibition proposed in Option 2 or Option 3.

Vehicle when being used for:

- fire brigade purposes
- police purposes
- parking in accordance with a direction given by a constable
- ambulance purposes
- the provision of, or in connection with, urgent or emergency health care, by a registered medical practitioner, registered nurse or registered midwife
- the purpose of saving life or responding to another similar emergency
- the purpose of providing assistance at an accident or breakdown
- postal services (within the meaning of section 125(1) of the Postal Services Act 2000)
- delivery, collection, loading or unloading of goods to, or from any premises, in the course of business; where this cannot reasonably be carried out without the vehicle being parked on a pavement; and the vehicle is so parked for no longer than is necessary for these purposes, and in any event for no more than a continuous period of 20 minutes
- collection of refuse by, or on behalf of, the local authority
- street cleansing purposes by, or on behalf of, the local authority
- gritting or salting or the clearance of snow by, or on behalf of, the local authority
- road works by, or on behalf of, the local authority
- road maintenance (including street furniture) by, or on behalf of, the local authority
- street works by, or on behalf of, the local authority or statutory undertakers, including utility companies
- to comply with the duty in section 170 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 to stop after an accident

Other situations - in respect of Option 3 only:

- any vehicle authorised by the council to be parked in a specified place at a specified time
