

Awards from Nottinghamshire Arts Fund

Nottinghamshire County Council has made the following awards to groups and individuals from the Nottinghamshire Arts Fund.

Applications were assessed against published criteria and have been approved by elected members.

Name of individual or organisation	District	Amount (£)	Project
Dig In Community Allotment	Broxtowe	530	Public workshops led by artist Sophie Robins , to help create a community mosaic for the DIG IN allotment site, Participants will also have a chance to take home work they make. Foxwood Special School will also be involved in creating work.
Expressive Arts Academy	Gedling	1600	The project will deliver a dance programme for children and young people living in disadvantaged areas in Gedling and culminating in a public performance
Hucknall Pre-School Playgroup	Ashfield	2000	'Flying the Flag for Hucknall', led by Hucknall Pre-School Playgroup, was set up for groups in the town to get involved in 'The Big Draw' . Different groups will make bunting that will go up in various places in the town. Individual projects will link together to produce a larger community artwork.
Jazzhouse Nottinghamshire Limited	Bassetlaw, Mansfield, Newark & Sherwood	2500	12 high quality jazz performances in Worksop, Mansfield and Southwell Libraries, with the inclusion of 'family friendly' Sunday performances in some venues
Magdala	Gedling	2500	Workshops sessions to introducing school age children, and members of wider community to signing and opera
Movement for All	Broxtowe	2500	A series of dance and movement workshops for people aged 60+ in and around Brinsley, working with professional dance artist Louise Jaggard.

Nottinghamshire Royal Society for the Blind	Mansfield	500	Participants from the organisation, now known as MySight Nottinghamshire , will work with professional artists Katie Stainer , Anna Roebuck and Vicky Price to produce an exhibition inspired by Nottingham Contemporary's exhibitions.
OPUS Music	Ashfield	2000	35 visits to the children's wards of King's Mill Hospital. Musicians will work with the hospital's play team to take music making to the young people's bedsides.
Random Line	Ashfield, Mansfield and Newark & Sherwood	2500	Working with learning disabled adults to create a multi media performances and installations and to explore the disabled culture of North Nottinghamshire
Retford Arts Society	Bassetlaw	781	A programme of visual arts demonstrations and workshops in and around Retford
Takeover Radio	Ashfield	2460	Sutton Sessions will be a series of monthly musical evenings with an established artist running workshops to help younger musicians. The workshops will be recorded and broadcast on the radio station.
UK Trini & Friends	Broxtowe	2500	The organisation will create a carnival parade and performance for Hemlock Happening and Stapleford Carnival 2013
Upton Village Arts Workshop	Newark & Sherwood	1709	Taking the inspiration of the apple orchards of Upton and working with professional artist Susan Isaacs , this project will deliver a series of workshops where participants will make work for an exhibition in the village
Writing East Midlands	Gedling	1805	'The Write Here@ The Lyric Lounge' will develop a group of spoken word performers across a cluster of local schools and showcase their work in a community event.

In addition two conditional awards have been allocated, and will be confirmed subject to applicants achieving significant match funding.