

SPECIALIST NEEDS

Everyone's needs are important. Domestic Violence exists within all White, Black and Minority Ethnic communities, rich or poor, religious or not, disabled or not, in relationships that are same sex or heterosexual, within the young and older generations.

FOR WOMEN SURVIVORS

There are domestic violence linked services for specific groups and communities, for example, services for women travellers, women with drug or alcohol dependency, disabled women, Black & Minority Ethnic women, women with learning difficulties or mental health issues.

For more information please call the 24hour National Domestic Violence Freephone Helpline on 0800 2000 247

FOR LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL & TRANSSEXUAL SURVIVORS:

Broken Rainbow
phoneline support
02085 399 507

FOR MALE SURVIVORS:

Devon Male
phoneline support
08450 646 800
(will take calls from men nationally and can refer men to a refuge that supports men)

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE:

See card No. 11 for information on where to get help.

WHAT ABOUT ME

What I like doing

---

What I don't like doing

---

Favourite Food and Drink

---

Favourite Music

---

My hobbies and interests

---

Clothes I like to wear

---

TV programmes I like to watch

---

My family

---

Things I like to talk about

---

What I think about sex

---

What I think about relationships

---

Help I may need (e.g. because of disability, language, reading or writing)

---

Things that I will want to continue to do as part of my religion, culture, school work or hobby

---