

Admission Policy St Patrick's Catholic Primary School 2017/2018

MISSION STATEMENT

St Patrick's Catholic Primary School, offers a distinctive education within a caring Christian Community where everyone can feel valued, confident and secure

We believe that each person is gifted, unique and loved by God.

By working in partnership we create a challenging, stimulating and effective learning environment where Christ is our inspiration.

Introduction

St Patrick's Catholic Primary School is a Church-Aided school in the Diocese of Hallam and is maintained by Nottinghamshire LA. This means that the members of the parish and the Diocese of Hallam have contributed towards the cost of building the school and continue to care for its buildings and its people.

The school provides distinctive Christ centred, Catholic education for children aged 4 to 11 years.

It is a Voluntary-Aided School in which the Governing Body is responsible for admissions. It is guided in that responsibility by the requirements of law, by advice from the Diocesan Trustees and its duty to the Catholic community and the Common Good.

Please note that admission to St Patrick's Catholic Primary School does not guarantee admission to a Catholic High School, which has its own admission policy.

The admission number for 2017/2018 is 15

Co-ordinated Scheme for Admission Arrangements

Details of the coordinated scheme can be obtained from Nottinghamshire County Council (www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk). Applications are made to the home local authority by the closing date. In addition, a supplementary information form should be completed and returned directly to the school.

Parental Preference

The Local Authority Common Application Form provides the opportunity for parents/carers to express preferences in rank order. Applications will be considered on an Equal Preference basis, ranking by preference will only be used in the final allocation for a place where there is more than one potential offer.

Date of Admission to the School for 2017/2018 is Wednesday 6th September 2017 (Nottinghamshire Authority has currently only released draft dates so this could change)

Although the law does not require children to be admitted to school until the beginning of the term following their fifth birthday, the Governing Body, being the admissions authority for this school, will admit children into school as follows:

- children whose fifth birthday falls between 1st September 2017 and 31st August 2018 – admission will be at the beginning of the Autumn Term in September 2018.

Admission oversubscription criteria:

Please note that children who have a Statement of Special Educational Needs that names the school are required by law to be admitted.

Where there are more applications for admission than the planned admission number stated (footnote 1), the Governing Body will apply the following criteria in strict order of priority:

Should the planned admission number be reached mid category, the Governing Body, as the admissions authority will make a decision based on distance measurement.

Priority within a category will be based on the shortest distance between the applicant's home and the school by the most direct route as measured by Nottinghamshire County Council's computerised distance measuring software. In the event of two distances being equal, lots will be drawn and independently verified.

Footnotes:

Footnote 1.

This number has been calculated according to the capacity of the school, which the law defines and has been agreed with Nottinghamshire LA.

Footnote 2

"Catholic children" are children who have been baptised into the Roman Catholic Church, those formally received into the Roman Catholic Church, or those whose parents have been formally received into the Roman Catholic Church, Catechumens, Candidates for Reception (those formally preparing to be received into the Roman Catholic Church) or those members of Churches who are in Full Communion with the Roman Catholic Church.

Definition of a Catechumen

Catechumens are those children who have expressed an explicit desire to be baptised into the Roman Catholic Church and who are currently preparing to receive the same by regular participation in Sunday worship and a recognised programme of preparation.

Definition of a Candidate for Reception

Candidates for Reception into Full Communion with the Roman Catholic Church are already baptised in another Christian Tradition, who have expressed an explicit desire to be incorporated into the Roman Catholic Church and who are currently preparing to be received into the Church by regular participation in Sunday worship and a recognised programme of preparation. It is advisable that records of any such reception or incorporation are maintained by the parish.

A list of those Churches which are in Full Communion with the Roman Catholic Church is available from the Diocesan Schools' Department (0114 2566440)

Footnote 3

Looked after and previously looked after

A looked after child is a child who is (a) in the care of a local authority, or (b) being provided with accommodation by a local authority in the exercise of their social services functions in accordance with section 22(1) of the Children Act 1989 at the time of making an application to a school.

Previously looked after children are children who were looked after but ceased to be so because they were adopted (or became subject to a residence order or special guardianship order). Previously looked after children are those who were adopted immediately following having been looked after. An adoption order is an order under section 46 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002. A 'residence order' is an order settling the arrangements to be made as to the person with whom the child is to live under section 8 of the Children Act 1989. Section 14A of the Children Act 1989 defines a 'special guardianship order' as an order appointing one or more individuals to be a child's special guardian (or special guardians).

Footnote 4

Definition of Sibling.

For the sibling (brother or sister) criterion to be applicable one of the following conditions must exist at the time of entry into school:

- brother and/or sister to be permanently resident at the same address.
- stepbrother and/or stepsister to be permanently resident at the same address.
- half brother and/or half sister to be permanently resident at the same address.
- brother and/or sister who do not live at the same residence but who share the same parent.
- child of the parent/carer's partner to be permanently resident at the same address.

You may be required to provide proof e.g. Birth Certificate and proof of residence as stated above
