EXPLORE NOTTINGHAMSHIRE ARCHIVES

22-26 NOVEMBER

Explore, discover and delve into Nottinghamshire's extensive archives and unlock a wealth of local history. Our comprehensive collections are packed with resources to help you research your past, uncover your family history and unearth Nottinghamshire's rich heritage.

All events £5 each or attend four events for £15

For adults and children over 12

Tuesday 22 November 2-4pm and Saturday 26 November 11am-1pm

EXPLORING FAMILY HISTORY: YOURS AND MINE

Explore the depths of archive resources with the stories of World War 1 soldier Sergeant Will Streets and Georgian Lady Gertrude Savile. Hear about Will's views on poetry and Gertrude's arguments with her mother. Find your own family story.

Wednesday 23 November 2-4pm
DISCOVER AND DELVE

Find your family's story and let us show you our online resources - Ancestry, Family Search, The National Archives' Discovery resources and our very own online catalogue.

Thursday 24 November 2-4pm
EXPLORE MORE

Learn how parish registers, wills, electoral registers, maps, census, diaries and our four million documents can expand your family story. Let's make your ancestors more than a name and birth date.

Friday 25 November 2-4pm
FAMILY STORY NATTER

Is there part of your family story that you cannot find? Want to discuss your research? Join us for a chance to talk about your family story.
