

NCC-034308-18 Special needs allocation

I would like to request to know how many responses you had to your consultation on how you were going to allocate hours to individual children for 2019 onwards. I would like to see these responses and then from that how you decided to allocate what to which children.

Also as I have been through the appeals process I would like to get a copy of the form that the assessors have to tick against when you have the phone conversation with the appeals team

Dear Requester,

In order to direct to correct department, could you provide me with further details. Which consultation are you referring to and do you know which area of the Local Authority dealt with this.

Kind Regards

The consultation was called SEND/review and took place by Nottinghamshire county council from the middle of October 2017 for 8 weeks. Councillor Phillip Owen of the childrens and young people services committee may have headed it I believe. Also the sheet for appeals will come from what the call Resource allocation system for the allocation of short breaks allocation for children with special needs
