Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Electronic tagging of young people released from detention at the mid-point of their DTO

Freedom of Information Request

We are writing in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Please provide us with the number of young people who have been released from detention with electronic tagging at the mid-point of their Detention and Training Order (DTO) under supervision of your youth offending team or equivalent, in the past twelve months.

Please address your response to the writer, Research Director at the Howard League for Penal Reform, using the above details.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully
