

Thank you for your recent Freedom of Information Request.
The response from the department concerned is as follows:

 We do not have a readily available method of reporting on those children who have been identified as having been trafficked or a victim of modern slavery. We have contacted the service manager who has contacted all Independent review officers for more information however as yet we cannot provide these figures at this time.

1. The total number of looked after children in the care of your authority that have been:
 - a. Identified as having been trafficked or a victim of modern slavery – including, but not limited to, those identified through the National Referral Mechanism.*
 - b. Suspected of having been a victim of trafficking or modern slavery , if not included in a.*
 - c. Identified as an unaccompanied asylum seeking child (UASC) or a separated child. 42

2. The total number of looked after children in the care of your authority:
 - a. Identified or suspected as having been trafficked/victim of modern slavery and that have gone missing or absent.*
 - b. Identified as an UASC or separated child and that have gone missing or absent. 3

3. The total number of individual incidents (which could involve the same child on more than one occasion) of looked after children in the care of your authority:
 - a. Identified or suspected as having been trafficked/victim of modern slavery and that have gone missing or absent.*
 - b. Identified as an UASC or separated child and that have gone missing or absent. 3

4. The total number of looked after children in the care of your authority that are still missing or absent (including those that subsequently turned 18 without being found) that were identified or suspected as having been trafficked or identified as an UASC or separated child. 0 – this figure refers to UASC only
