What is Notts Performing Arts?

Notts Performing Arts offers exciting, high quality arts opportunities for young people aged 7-19, in year 3 and above, who want to develop their skills in performing arts. We offer a choice of music, dance and drama workshops and a variety of performance opportunities.

Notts Performing Arts Centres – Saturday Mornings

- No audition - start dates are each half term
- Music, dance and drama workshops
- Students create their own timetable, based on the availability of activities at the centre they join
- Support Assistants work closely with students with Special Educational Needs. Please note that we do not administer medication or provide personal care
- We recommend a visit to your chosen Saturday Centre prior to enrolling to check availability of the sessions that your child is interested in. Contact the NPA Office to book a visit on the next available date.
