LOOKING BACK ON PRIDES 2019

FREE

Yes, it rained - the first time since 1998. But though clothes were dampened, spirits were not. Some amazing costumes in the huge parade Thanks, as usual, to the Pride Committee for organising it all.

JULY 2019 - NOTTINGHAMSHIRE'S MONTH OF RAINBOWS

On July 16th, the leader of the City Council, Councillor David Mellen, cut the ribbon which marked the installation of four permanent rainbow crossings - three on the newly pedestrianised section of Broad Street and one on Carlton Street.

The crossings were sponsored by Nottingham Together, Robin Hood Energy and Nottingham City Homes.

Members of Notts LGBT+ Network decided to do an "Abbey Road". Some people even felt the urge to get up close up and personal.

A couple of days later both Nottingham Council House and Wollaton Hall were lit up in rainbow colours for several nights in the run up to Pride

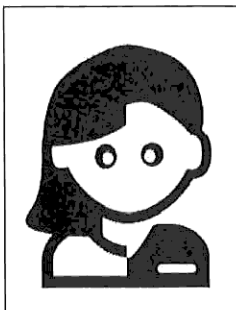

Not to be outdone, on July 18th Lord Byron himself welcomed visitors to Newstead Abbey girded in a rainbow flag.

A little later, his lordship scaled the heights of the Abbey's tower to hoist the rainbow flag up the flagpole.

That's good going for someone born in 1788.

The Nottingham Chameleons is a social and support group for trans* people and their families & friends which started back in the early 80s. You may be part-time, full-time, MTF, FTM, trans-woman, trans-man, or undecided. We have a safe space where you can be yourself and you – or you and your partner, parent or friend – can be sure of a warm welcome. Our meetings are held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. They start at 8pm and run until around 11pm.

We meet in a private, out-of-town community centre in Nuthall: The Temple Centre 44 Nottingham Rd, Nuthall, Nottingham NG16 1DP There is ample off-street parking at the Centre and we have changing facilities upstairs, should you need them. After 8.30pm, there is no one else at the Centre except Chameleons.

The TRUE VISION website explains clearly what a hate crime is and that includes internet hate crime. It gives advice and guidance about reporting hate crimes, including reporting hate crimes online, if you do not want to report directly to the police. Go to <http://www.report-it.org.uk>

Sparrows Nest Library & Archive has gathered a unique collection of articles, magazines and newsletters relating to Nottingham's radical history. This includes much LGBTQ material.

They have now been offered the brilliant opportunity by Notts Zine Library and the Nottingham Contemporary to take over a space at Nottingham Contemporary for three days, displaying original documents and contextual information on the rich heritage of alternative/radical printed local news media.

The event is titled: Nottingham Prints - Radical and Alternative News Media from Five Decades' It runs from Sep 27th to the 29th .

If you want to receive QB by e-mail, contact LGBT+ Network and ask to be put on to the e-mail list. The e-mailed version not only appears 14 days before the printed version - it's also in glorious colour!

AT FIVE LEAVES BOOKSHOP

Unorthodox

LGBT+ Identity and Faith

In October Five Leaves will be publishing a new book on LGBT+ Identity and Faith, with stories from people across the five major religions in Britain. Sean Richardson (editor), the contributors and Five Leaves Bookshop invite you to the book launch of our new title Unorthodox: LGBT+ Identity and Faith

In modern Britain, what does it mean to be queer and religious? Unorthodox tells the stories of LGBT+ people of faith throughout the country. Bringing together artists, activists, religious leaders, community workers and writers, this collection explores how LGBT+ Christians, Muslims, Jews, Hindus and Sikhs navigate their faith, why they stay and what it means to believe no matter the cost

Book early for this one as it will be full. Free, refreshments provided. Please let us know you are coming on events@fiveleaves.co.uk

Wednesday, 2nd October 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Michelle Tea is our exuberant, witty guide to the hard times and wild creativity of queer life in America. Along the way she reclaims SCUM Manifesto author Valerie Solanas as an absurdist, remembers the lives and deaths of the lesbian motorbike gang HAGS, and listens to activists at a trans protest camp. Unsparing but unwaveringly kind, Michelle Tea reveals herself and others in unexpected and heartbreaking ways.

Monday Oct. 7th. 7pm-8.30pm Tickets: £4.00 (£2.00 students) including refreshments. Please let us know you are coming on events@fiveleaves.co.uk

Five Leaves Bookshop, 14a Long Row, Nottingham.
