Request for Information: Ref NCC-034258-18
Schools and Air Pollution

Thank you for your request for information relating to schools in the council area that have stopped children from going outside because of concerns about air pollution.

I can confirm that we do not hold this information – individual schools may undertake air quality monitoring but it is not held or managed centrally within NCC.

We hope this now satisfies your request, and should you have any further enquiries please do not hesitate to contact me directly using the contact details below. In addition and for future reference Nottinghamshire County Council regularly publish previous Freedom of Information Requests and answers on our website, under Disclosure logs, available at the following link
