

The Youth Support Service is one of the service areas which sits in the Inclusion and Engagement Division which makes up the Children and Young People's Department of Nottinghamshire County Council.

The Head of Service for the Youth Support Service is Derek Higton and he oversees the three areas that make up the Youth Support Service which are; the Teenage Pregnancy Partnership, Notts Training Partnership and the Youth Service.

The Youth Service is managed by five Operations and Development Managers; Chris O'Brien, Chris Warren, Ray Kinsey, Nigel Down and Sharon Hall.

Each Operations and Development Manager has a portfolio of areas within the Youth Service that they oversee they are as follows;

Chris O'Brien – Information and Counselling, Entry to Employment, Adventure, County Youth Arts

Chris Warren – Broxtowe, Ashfield and Mansfield districts

Ray Kinsey – Under 14's, Disability Support Team, Crime and Disorder and Youth Engagement Team

Nigel Down – Awards and Accreditation, Learning and Development

Sharon Hall – Gedling, Bassetlaw, Rushcliffe, Newark and Sherwood districts and Work With Schools.

The Operations and Development Managers oversee these areas as well as being responsible for other work for the service.
