

Admission Policy for Primary Schools – 2008/09

(February 2007)

St Patrick's Catholic Primary School

Introduction

St Patrick's Catholic Primary School is a Church aided school in the Diocese of Hallam and is maintained by Nottinghamshire LA. This means that the members of Parish and the Diocese of Hallam have contributed towards the cost of building the school and continue to care for its buildings and its people.

The school provides distinctive Christ centred, Catholic education for children aged 4+ to 11+ years, with priority being given to children who live and worship within the parish of St Patrick's.

It is a Voluntary Aided School in which the Governing Body is responsible for admissions. It is guided in that responsibility by the requirements of law, by advice from the Diocesan Trustees and its duty to the Catholic community and the Common Good.

Please note that admission to St Patrick's Catholic Primary School does not guarantee admission to a Catholic High School, which has its own admission policy.

The admission number for 2008/2009 is 15.

Co-ordinated Scheme for Admission Arrangements

The co-ordinated scheme for admissions is a mechanism that ensures that all parents resident in Nottinghamshire LA and who have expressed a preference for St Patrick's Catholic Primary School before the closing date will receive a single offer of a school place on the same day from the Authority.

In order to provide every parent with an offer of one single place the Authority will be working with the Governing Bodies of the Voluntary Aided primary schools within the Bassetlaw area, including St Patrick's Catholic Primary School. Details of the co-ordinated scheme can be obtained from the Authority.

Applications are made by the completion of the NOTTINGHAMSHIRE COMMON APPLICATION FORM and the Diocese of Hallam ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FORM.

Parental Preference

The Local Authority Common Application Form provides the opportunity for parents/guardians to express two choices of schools in rank order of preference. You are invited to submit up to three ranked preferences on the Local Authority's Common Application Form. Applications will be considered on an Equal Preference basis.
