

13th July 2011.

Keith & Inga,

Many thanks for a wonderful afternoon Saturday. We were very honoured you sat with us, & very impressed both the bouncil chamber & the suite, & all in such a lovely way. We were treated like royalty!

Also, I haven't thanked you for inviting to take part in your civic service reading the lesson at Southwellminster. A chance only given once in a lifetime! It was a truly great privilege, & I am so pleased that you have agreed to read for me, albeit in the much humbler surroundings of the Methodist Church — but it is a nice church, especially since they put the lovely glass screen in place.

Many thanks & see you soon,

Angela.