OPENING PRAYER

Upon the Council convening at 10.30 am, prayers were led by the Chairman's Chaplain.

1. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

Apologies for absence were received from Councillors Mick Murphy, Kevin Rostance, Jim Creamer, Gail Turner, Rev Tom Irvine and Ken Rigby.

Members were informed that Councillor Jim Creamer's wife, Pearl, had recently passed away and the Chief Executive was asked to send a letter of condolence to him on behalf of the Council.

2. DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

There were no declarations of Interest

3. APPOINTMENT OF HONORARY ALDERMEN

On a motion by Councillor Mrs Kay Cutts, and seconded by Councillor Alan Rhodes it was

RESOLVED: 2009/035

That in accordance with Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972, the title of Honorary Alderman be conferred on Martin Brandon Bravo OBE and The Honourable Mrs Joan Taylor MBE, in recognition of the eminent services they have each rendered to the people of Nottinghamshire through their service as past members of the County Council.

The Chairman presented them both with a certificate to mark their appointment.

Martin Brandon-Bravo thanked the Council for the unexpected honour which he accepted with great pleasure, and pride in joining the previous recipients of the honour.

The Honourable Mrs Joan Taylor thanked the Council for the special honour, and acknowledged the pleasure it gave her to be included with the previous recipients.

The meeting closed at 11.15am.
