Notes

1. You will NOT need a fireworks licence if you only intend to supply or expose for supply fireworks during the following periods. (You will, however, still be required to ensure that the premise at which the fireworks are stored is registered under the Manufacture and Storage of Explosives Regulations 2005)
  - On the first day of Chinese New Year and the three days immediately preceding it;
  - On the day of Diwali and the three days immediately preceding it;
  - During the period beginning on 15th October and ending on the 10th November; or
  - During the period beginning on the 26th December and ending on 31st December.
2. An application to register a premise at which fireworks or explosives are kept can be obtained by contacting us as shown overleaf.
3. Nottinghamshire County Council may refuse to grant a licence, or may revoke a licence that has been granted if the applicant has been convicted of committing an offence relating to the supply or storage of fireworks or explosives.

If a licence is refused or revoked the applicant may appeal to the Courts against the decision. That appeal must be made within 28 days of the decision being notified to that person.

4. Nottinghamshire County Council's Trading Standards Service is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring all personal information is kept confidential and safe. For more details see: <http://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/global-content/privacy>
