A Monthly Analysis of Employment, Unemployment and Jobs

EB 03/17

February 2017

Unemployment according to the Government's preferred measure was 1.58 million in the three months to January 2017, down 31,000 from the previous three months and down 106,000 from the same period a year ago. The unemployment rate was 4.7%, down 0.1% from the previous three months and down 0.3% from a year earlier.

The unemployment rate for 18-24 year olds was 10.9% in the three months to January 2017, down 0.6% on the quarter and down 1.1% on the year. There were 438,000 unemployed young people aged from 18 to 24 in the quarter to January 2017. This is down by 27,000 on the quarter and down by 60,000 over the year. Comparisons of youth unemployment over time are complicated by the fact that unemployment rates are calculated as the number of unemployed people divided by the economically active population which excludes those not seeking or available for work. Unemployment rates are not the proportion of the total population who are unemployed. They are the proportion of the economically active population (those in work plus those seeking and available to work) who are unemployed. The long-term increase in the proportion of young people going into full-time education reduces the size of the economically active population and therefore increases the unemployment rate.

The seasonally adjusted claimant count figure for the United Kingdom decreased by 11,269 last month to 734,722 and was down 1,470 over the year.

The number of people in employment aged 16 and over increased by 92,000 over the quarter to reach 31.85 million. The employment rate for those aged 16 to 64 is now 74.6%.

The number of people in full-time employment increased by 136,000 on the quarter to

The Employment Bulletin uses the Claimant Count rather than the count of JSA claimants. This experimental series counts the number of people claiming Jobseeker's Allowance plus those who claim Universal Credit and are required to seek work and be available for work. It replaces the number of people claiming Jobseeker's Allowance as the headline indicator of the number of people claiming benefits principally for the reason of being unemployed.

The unadjusted claimant count figure for the United Kingdom has increased by 29,240 over the month to 803,580. The proportion unemployed calculated on the residence base now stands at 1.9% of the population aged 16-64.

The number of claimants in Nottinghamshire increased by 795 between January and February 2017. The total of 15,075 is 400 less than it was a year ago (see figure 1).

The proportion unemployed in Nottinghamshire is now 2.1%. This is higher than the East Midlands (1.6%) and the United Kingdom (1.9%).

Between January and February 2017, unemployment increased in all of the four Travel To Work Areas in the County (figure 2). Mansfield experienced the largest increase with a rate of change of 7.2%, followed by Nottingham with 5.8%, Lincoln with 3.6% and Worksop & Retford with 2.0%.

Claimant count.

This experimental series counts the number of people claiming Jobseeker's Allowance plus those who claim Universal Credit and are required to seek work and be available for work and replaces the number of people claiming Jobseeker's Allowance as the headline indicator of the number of people claiming benefits principally for the reason of being unemployed.

All data are rounded to the nearest 5 and may not precisely add to the sum of the number of people claiming JSA, published on Nomis, and the number of people claiming Universal Credit required to seek work, published by DWP, due to independent rounding.
