2. How many have not gone over PAN but have accepted additional children through appeals.
This information is not held by the council.

3. What are the names of the schools who have done the above?
N/A

4. How many schools were over PAN after last year's allocation and appeal process?
This information is not held by the council.

5. How many complaints are being investigated by the local government ombudsman to date regarding the appeal process this year?
In responding to this question we are assuming "this year" relates to the calendar year 2017. Figures collated 4/8/17.

LGO cases relating to the re-hearings heard: 4
LGO cases relating to secondary admission appeals: 2 (of which one has been concluded)
LGO cases relating to first admission appeals (to Reception): 8 (of which one has been concluded)
LGO cases relating to in-year transfer appeals: 0

NB – these include both initial enquiries and investigations

6. What is the official complaints procedure within NCC for the public?

Information about our complaints process is available on our website at:

<http://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/contact-and-complaints/complaints/complaints-process>

7. How many children have been turned down via the appeals process this year?

During the main admission round April – 4th August 2017:-

Total number of local authority first admission appeals heard: 237

Total number of local authority first admission appeals dismissed: 162

Please note that whilst all on time appeals have been heard there are still appeals relating to first admission applications being received, therefore the number of first admission appeals heard will increase.

8. How many children were turned down via the appeals process last year?

During the main admission round April – September 2016:-

Total number of local authority first admission appeals heard: 437

Total number of local authority first admission appeals dismissed: 387

The above information in relation to first admission appeals has already been supplied to the Department for Education. Anticipated publication on website – September 2017.

Following the decision to offer fresh appeals to those 2016-17 appeals to those potentially affected by the removal of the Out of Catchment with Sibling criterion, a number of the above appeals were re-heard:-

Total number of first admission rehearing appeals heard: 63

Total number of first admission rehearing appeals dismissed: 21
