

NCC-034395-18 Complaints regarding parking in Newark

Dear Nottinghamshire County Council,

Under the freedom of information please provide the following information.

1. The number of complaints received prior to May 2013 stating that blue badge holders were finding parking in Newark Town Centre difficult because spaces were always occupied.
2. Since May 2013 how many complaints have been received regarding blue badge holders being limited to 3 hours parking in a designated bay. When able bodied people parking in a normal bay can park all day.
3. From previous FOIs to Newark and Sherwood Council it is obvious that they have a policy limiting blue badge holders parking in a disabled bay to three hours parking even when able bodied people parking in a normal bay can park all day and do not have any designated disabled parking where blue badge holders can park for longer than three hours.

Please confirm whether this policy is solely limited to Newark and Sherwood District Council or if this policy is enforced throughout Nottinghamshire.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Requester,

Further to your request for information, please see below our restrictions are all available online at

<http://www.nottinghamtraffweb.co.uk/>

The majority of our disabled spaces are not time limited but a few are. In addition, Blue Badge holders can park within limited waiting spaces (30 min, 1 hour etc) for an unlimited period of time.

We issue many PCNs to those that park without BB's

We do not hold any complaint details in relation to the request and would suggest contacting the Boroughs who may hold this.
