

Freedom of information request NCC-035602-18

Thank you for your recent freedom of information request for the following information:

Could you please supply in the form of an excel spreadsheet details of all council spending over £250. Please include amount, supplier, start end and review date, responsible officer, description of items supplied and council department responsible. (Where possible).

In line with the Local Government Transparency Code 2015, Nottinghamshire County Council complies with the requirement to publish details of each individual item of expenditure that exceeds £500 on a quarterly basis. All of this information is available in the public domain. We do not publish spend below this value.
