

Dear Requester

I refer to your recent Freedom of Information request:

I am looking to gather information on how much gross and net income has been derived by the County Council from 2003 to date regarding the Nuthall bus plug. Then from the revenue that has been raised - what exactly that in turn has been spent on.

The response is:

The income from the Penalty Charge Notices for Nuthall Bus gate is spent in accordance with The Bus Lane Contraventions Regulations 2005. They are spent as follows:

Income	Penalty Notices net of administrative costs.	£1,489,511.00
Expenditure	Local bus support	£254,264
	Bus priority measures & bus infrastructure improvements	£673,861
	Future schemes	£561,386

I hope that this assists and apologise for the delay. Should you have any further enquiries please do not hesitate to contact me directly on the details below.
