

County Kitchen

This easy read tells you about County Kitchen – Nottinghamshire County Council's meals at home service.

County Kitchen has lots of different meals you can order.

The ingredients are responsibly and locally sourced to help protect the environment's resources.

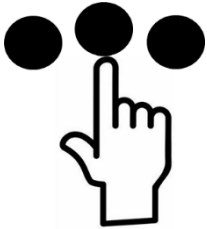

All the meals cost £5.82, including a dessert or soup.

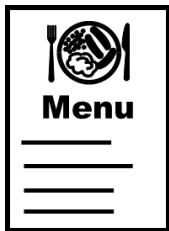

We do not charge a delivery fee as the cost of delivery is included in the price.

You can choose many types of food including:

- Hot oven cooked food.
- Frozen meals.
- Special meals for dietary needs.

Menu

The menu can be found in the County Kitchen brochure online.

Food option types include:

- Meat (beef, pork, chicken, turkey and lamb, venison and rabbit)
- Fish
- Vegetarian options
- Soup
- Desserts
- Pureed meals desserts

- Teatime packs
- Ethnic and specialist diets

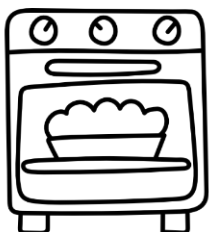

Many of the vans have ovens on board that cook the food on the way to you.

The service is flexible and runs seven days a week.

County Kitchen delivery staff can do “safe and well” checks. We can get in touch with someone to help you if there is a problem.

All the frozen meals can be reheated in a microwave or an oven.

You should follow the heating instructions on the label of each meal because the instructions may be different for each meal.

Food Allergies
