

Notts Next Steps App Privacy Notice

Introduction

This privacy notice explains how the Council uses your data to deliver the Notts Next Steps App.

Who will be using your data?

Nottinghamshire County Council will be the data controller for the data you provide to us.

We may also contract third party organisations to process your data on our behalf (e.g. suppliers of business systems such as our Business Management System).

What personal data do we use?

The below data is used in aggregate form for general analysis and is not used to identify any App users individually and not for marketing purposes:

- Information about what device and operating system you are using to access the app. This helps monitor popular usage and diagnose any faults or crashes.
- Information about what content is being visited, how long sessions last, how many screens are visited per session. This is useful for analysing the performance of the App and making improvements to both the App and our service to you.
- Where location sharing has been enabled, we may collect and use data about your location. This helps us display relevant information about your local area, including location maps.

Why do we use your data?

- To deliver the app
- Reporting and analysis

What legal reasons allow us to use your data in this way?

Our legal basis for processing your personal data is consent.

Who may we share your data with or receive it from?

- Flurry Analytics
- Google Maps

May personal data be transferred overseas?

The Council may for operational purposes transfer personal data overseas. In these cases, we will ensure that your personal data is protected and there are safeguards for the protection of your rights. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement for further details.

How long is your data kept for?

This information is held in accordance with the Council's retention schedule – see here.

What will happen if you do not provide or we cannot obtain the data needed?

- We could not ensure the smooth running and delivery of the app.

Does the service make decisions using fully automated processes?

No.

What rights do you have over this use of your data?

- To be informed about how we use your data
- To access a copy of your data that we process
- To have us rectify or correct your data that we process
- To restrict our processing of your personal data
- To object to the use of your data
- To have your personal data erased
- To request that we transfer your information to you or another organisation
- To object to fully automated decision making
- To withdraw your consent (if it the legal reason why we use your data).

Some of these rights are subject to exceptions. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement part 10 for further details.
