

Increasing Vaccination Uptake in Primary Schools Privacy Notice

Introduction

This privacy notice explains how we use your data in relation to the Public Health initiative to increase vaccination uptake in primary schools.

Who will be using your data?

This project is coordinated by Nottinghamshire Council Council's Public Health team and are the data controller for the data we process in relation to this initiative.

We also receive data from the NHS, and share data with the school your child / children attend

What personal data do we use?

- Student Name
- Year Group
- School attended
- Missing vaccination status (for all vaccinations offered to date)

What types of special category personal data do we need from you?

- Data concerning health information

Why do we use your data?

- To ensure we are reaching out to the correct cohort who will benefit from this initiative
- For project delivery and analysis

What legal reasons allow us to use your data in this way?

Our legal basis for processing your personal data in relation to the project is carrying out a task or function in the public interest.

Our legal basis for processing your special category personal data in relation to vaccination status is for the purpose of Public Health and also for Health or Social Care purpose.

Who may we share your data with or receive it from?

- Health organisations
- Schools

May personal data be transferred overseas?

Council's may for operational purposes transfer personal data overseas. In these cases, we will ensure that your personal data is protected and there are safeguards for the protection of your rights. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement for further details.

How long is your data kept for?

Personal information collected and processed in relation to the project will be held by Nottinghamshire County Council for a maximum of 1 year, from the date it is collected. After this period, all personal data will be securely deleted.

What rights do you have over this use of your data?

- To be informed about how we use your data
- To access a copy of your data that we process
- To have us rectify or correct your data that we process
- To restrict our processing of your personal data
- To object to the use of your data
- To have your personal data erased
- To withdraw your consent

Some of these rights are subject to exceptions. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement for further details.

Contact the Data Protection Officer:

If you have any concerns about how the Council is using your data, in the first instance you can contact the County Council's Data Protection Officer by writing to:

DPO@nottsc.gov.uk

Or

Data Protection Officer
Nottinghamshire County Council
County Hall
West Bridgford
Nottingham
NG2 7QP

Contact details of the Information Commissioner's Office:

If you are unhappy with how your data has been processed or you feel your data protection rights have been breached, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office at:

www.ico.org.uk

Or

Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
SK9 5AF

Last updated: 18/02/2026